REV. H. E. O'GRADY

Talks to Editor Anniston
Evening Star.

Father H. E. O'Grady, the well-known missionary priest, who is at present the guest of Father Doyle, at the rectory, was seen last evening by a reporter of the Evening Star in reference to the wonderful of which he discovered the formula. Father O'Grady gave him a history of the remedy and all the good that had been done by it. And as the reporter was about to leave, Father O'Grady said:

"I wish you would tell the mothers in Anniston, and for miles around Anniston to keep a bottle of this great remedy in their homes and give it to their children when in need of a gentle laxative and liver medicine. There is nothing like it to build up a run-down system."

Rev. H. E. O'Grady is too well known to need an introduction here, being a missionary of national reputation and a brother of Ex-Senator O'Grady, of New York.

DELIVERED BODY OF PAUL JONES

REMAINS TURNED OVER TO UNITED STATES BY FRANCE YESTERDAY—AMERICAN SAILORS GIVEN AN OVATION IN PARIS.

By Associated Press.
Paris, July 6.—The ceremony of delivering the body of Paul Jones to representatives of the United States was held this afternoon in the American church in the presence of a distinguished gathering of the highest officials, and the military and naval dignitaries of France, diplomatic representatives of many countries and the special ambassadors and naval authorities sent from the United States.

UNITED STATES SAILORS GIVEN AN OVATION.

Paris, July 6.—The unusual sight of a detachment of United States sailors and marines swinging through the central thoroughfares of Paris to-day aroused great interest and brought out an enthusiastic ovation from the crowds along the line of march. The American naval contingent numbering five hundred men with twenty-five officers left Cherbourg in two special trains at 2 o'clock this morning, arriving at the Invalides railroad station at 11:40 a. m.

In spite of the hard night the sailors and marines presented a fine appearance as they emerged from the station. They were uniformed as a landing party, wearing the regulation gaiters and carrying rifles with fixed bayonets. A company of French infantry was drawn up fronting the station to receive the Americans. The latter formed in battalion and unfurled the American flag and naval ensign. At the same moment the French troops came to the salute, the French standard was dipped, the French band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner," and the great crowds which had surged across the Alexander bridge, shouted "Vive Les Americains," "Vive La France," the entire multitude uncovering respectfully while the American anthem was played. Another outburst of enthusiasm greeted the "Marseillaise" and then the French escort took up the line of march across the Esplanade of the Invalides to the Avenue Piquet and thence to the military school.

All along the route the streets were lined with dense crowds eager to see the Americans. Women waved their handkerchiefs and miniature flags and there was a continuous shout of "Vive les Americains." The Americans made a most favorable impression by their sturdy bronze appearance and the smartness of their movements. They were received at the military school by a battalion of French troops drawn up in the great court. Again the national anthems were played and salutes were exchanged. The Americans were then taken within the military school which will serve as the barracks during their stay here. The American sailors and French soldiers were soon on the most friendly basis, fraternizing, eating and chatting together while awaiting the ceremony of the delivery of Paul Jones's body at the American church on the Avenue de l'Alma at 3:30 this afternoon.

New York Cotton Market.

New York, July 6.—The cotton market opened irregular at a decline of 4 points on near positions, but unchanged to 3 points higher on new crop months. Liverpool was about as expected, and the spot market abroad seemed to be attracting less demand but the weather south was considered a little too wet in some sections and there was a good demand here from New Orleans and warehouses with southern connections generally. At first leading local traders appeared to be selling, but Liverpool firmed up in sympathy with a bulge for 20 points in New Orleans, and prices here were 14 to 18 points net higher by the end of the first hour. Trading was hardly as active as recently and seemed to be more largely for professional account, although commission houses were good buyers at times.
